BETWEEN THE FLAGS - 7 JULY 2014

Members are reminded that the 2014-15 surf club season commenced on July 1st and fees for the new season are now due. Fees are the same as last season and all membership and fee details can be found on the club website. Those members wishing to use the club gym need to complete new gym forms and pay club and gym memberships where applicable. Members who hire lockers will also need to complete membership renewal forms and pay the locker annual fee which is also due now.

Fees can be paid online at www.lifesavingonline.com.au or at the club office during office hours or at Elders Real Estate. New season membership forms are required for all members except those renewing memberships online.

The Yamba SLSC Annual General Meeting is being held at the Clubhouse on Sunday 27th July starting at 2pm. All existing and new members are encouraged to attend.

An Apply First Aid course is being held at Yamba Surf Club on Sunday 3rd August, 8.30 am for a 9 am start. Participants need to register at the Surf Club office by Monday 21st July and need to provide an email contact, as part of the course is delivered on-line. The course is delivered free to members but could cost non-members up to $100

Registrations are now open for the Yamba SLSC annual Charity Golf Day on Sunday 24th August at Yamba Golf and Country Club. The event tees off at 10:30am and is a shotgun start. With great prizes to be won, start getting your team of 4 players together and register at the Yamba Golf and Country Club.

The Yamba SLSC meat raffles are on at the Yamba Golf and Country Club every Saturday evening. This week Heather & Brian Badgery, Roger McLean and Scott Greensill will be selling tickets from 5:30pm and the draw starting at 6.30 p.m.
